2. The Supervisory Board is convened as needed, at least four times a year.
3. A convocation of the Supervisory Board can be also demanded by the Management Board or a member of the Supervisory Board, with presentation of the suggested agenda. The Chairman shall convene the meeting within two weeks of having received the request. If the Chairman fails to convene the meeting, the requesting party may convene the meeting himself/herself, stating the date, place and suggested agenda. For avoidance of doubts, the Management Board shall not be authorised to demand the instigation of the procedure for adoption of a Supervisory Board’s resolution in the manners set out in § 14 herein below.

The resolutions of the Supervisory Board and the meetings of the Supervisory Board are recorded in the minutes by minutes keeper who is not a member of the Supervisory Board or by an individual appointed by the Chairman from among the members of the Supervisory Board. The minutes should contain the agenda, names and surnames of the Supervisory Board members present, number of votes cast with regard to individual resolutions as well as vota separata, if any, and the procedure under which the resolution was adopted. The minutes must be signed by all Supervisory Board members present.

1. The Supervisory Board can adopt resolutions by circular, in form of written statements, except for situations where the law or the provisions of the Company's Statute prohibit the resolution to be adopted in such a manner. Each member of the Supervisory Board shall, immediately upon appointment, give to the Chairman written information about his/her address. Each member must notify any changes in his/her address to the Chairman.
2. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board or his/her appointee shall send to other members of the Supervisory Board, by e-mail or courier against acknowledgement of receipt, a notice of instigation of the procedure for adoption of resolution or resolutions by circular by the Supervisory Board. The draft resolution or resolutions to be voted by circular must be enclosed to this notice. The notice should specify the address, to which the members of the Supervisory Board are to send the votes cast in accordance with § 14.3 herein below, or the person to whom such votes should be given.
3. The voting by circular takes place by delivery of written statement placed under the text of resolution or resolutions enclosed to the notice referred to in § 14.2 hereinabove. Such statement must specify whether the vote concerning a given resolution is cast "for" or "against" or abstained, as well as give the rationale and, subject to § 14.5 herein below, should be sent to the address or delivered to the person as per notice made under § 14.2 hereinabove.
4. The notice sent in connection with the instigation of the procedure for voting by circular should specify the time limit, within which the vote should be cast, in accordance with § 14.3 hereinabove. The aforesaid time limit cannot be shorter than 2 days from the date of dispatch of the aforesaid notice. Casting the vote (sending the letter) past the time limit shall mean that a given member of the Supervisory Board did not participate in the voting.
5. If the person who sends the notice of instigation of the procedure for voting by circular concerning resolution or resolutions, in accordance with § 14.2 hereinabove, is a member of the Supervisory Board, he/she does not send the notice to himself/herself, but casts the vote by giving the statement specifying whether the vote was cast "for" or "against" or abstained concerning the resolution or resolutions being voted.
6. The Supervisory Board can adopt resolutions with use of direct remote communication means. The members of the Supervisory Board can use any method of direct remote communications that is available to them at a given moment, and they are not obligated to use the same means of direct remote communication when voting. Each member of the Supervisory Board shall, immediately after voting, give the Chairman written information concerning the means of direct remote communication, i.e. his/her e-mail address, fax number and phone number. Each member must notify any changes in the aforesaid data to the Chairman of the Supervisory Board. A member of the Supervisory Board can notify his/her temporary means of direct remote communication that he/she intends to use in the particular voting.

7. Before voting with use of direct remote communication means, the Chairman or his/her appointee shall set the date of the voting. Such voting will be possible if all members of the Supervisory Board are notified about voting in the aforesaid manner at least 2 (two) business days prior to the date, and provided further that they are delivered the draft resolution or resolutions that are to be adopted in this manner. In emergencies, the voting of the Supervisory Board can take place without observance of the aforesaid time limits, provided that all members of the Supervisory Board consent. Such a consent can be also obtained with use of aforesaid means of direct remote communication.

8. After the voting ends, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board or the member of the Supervisory Board appointed by the Chairman draws up and signs the minutes. The minutes should contain a description of the voting method, text of voted resolutions, number of votes cast for resolutions, against resolutions and abstained.
